

Walking Tours at Kensico

Enjoy a mash-up of music, mystery, and mausoleum stories during these free evening walking tours of The Kensico Cemetery grounds.

The Ossipee Loop Tour (.5 miles)

Tuesday, May 9, 2023 5:30PM-7PM

Thursday, May 11 2023 5:30PM-7PM

Highlights include a baseball legend and his boss; two inventors; a movie theatre mogul; a World's Fair mystery; a controversial circus connection, a scandalous scofflaw, a Sentimental Gentleman, a Broadway angel, and one good witch.

The Tower Loop Tour (.6 miles)

Tuesday, May 16, 2023 5:30PM – 7PM

Thursday, May 18, 2023 5:30PM – 7PM

Highlights include a subway surprise, a silent film director, two sculptures hidden in plain sight, a Titanic mystery, a controversial kiss, a Hungarian dessert, a car that earned a Purple Heart, a runaway horse, and a tribute to Twinkies.

Tours also point out one-of-a-kind mausoleums and statuary that contribute to Kensico's unique landscape.

Tour Guide:

Patrick Raftery, Associate Director/Librarian; Westchester County Historical Society; and Board member, The Friends of Kensico, Inc.

Participants should wear comfortable shoes. Restrooms are open in the Administration Building at start and end of all tours. Bottled water will be available.

Free Admission. Reservations Required.

The Kensico Cemetery

273 Lakeview Avenue

Valhalla, NY 10595

www.kensico.org

Reserve a Spot
Email tour date choice to:
events@kensico.org.
Directions and details will be in confirmation email.